CHICAGO, April 12.—New high price records for the season continue to be scored teday in the corn market. The incentive was a statement from the federal wheat director that he saw little chance of a return of the 5-cent loaf of bread, and that Buropean supplies, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1½c higher, with July $1.58½ to $1.55 and heptember $1.54½ to $1.55, were followed by moderate further gains and then a series of profit taking reactions.

Hedging operations put some weight on the market later. The close was unsettled, %c net lower to le advance, with July $1.58½ to $1.54½.

Oats duplicated the action of cern. After opening %c off to %c advance, with July 70%c to 70%c, the market hardened a little and then tended to sag.
